

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Lecturer (Teaching) Sports Coaching (Cricket)	Band AC2: £37,100 - £41,732 Opportunity to progress to £45,585
School: Sport and Exercise Science
Department: Physical Education and Sports Coaching
Reporting directly to: Head of Department, Physical Education and Sports Coaching
Supervisory responsibility for: N/A
Other Contacts Internal: Head of School; Deputy Head of School; Academic and Professional Service colleagues within the School; Academic colleagues in the School of Sport and Exercise Science; ASU Manager
Main Duties <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To participate in the delivery of a range of Cricket Coaching and Management modules and contribute to other programmes as appropriate/required e.g. Sports Development and Coaching. 2. To demonstrate innovative approaches to teaching and support for students using a wide range of learning resources and appropriate pedagogic practice. 3. To provide a high-quality contribution (including preparation of course documentation) to the development of undergraduate programmes in the School of Sport & Exercise Science. 4. To contribute to the design and development of innovative, inclusive and inspiring learning materials and assessments, including e-learning. 5. To contribute to the assessment process for students including the setting, marking and moderation of work, individually or collectively as part of a team in accordance with quality assurance procedures. 6. To ensure that teaching is informed by contemporary research and where appropriate scholarly activity that supports the development of student's critical discourse and rational thinking. 7. Where appropriate undertake or contribute to consultancy and knowledge transfer work, including income generation. 8. To build and maintain collaborative networks related to the post within and external to the University and the School.

9. To act as personal academic tutor to undergraduate students.
10. To contribute to the promotion and external profile of the University. This involves participation in visit/open days, undertaking administrative duties and participating in relevant committees within the School and university as directed by the Head of School.
11. To undertake personal professional development in support of teaching.
12. To undertake administrative duties and participate in relevant committees within the School and university as directed by the Head of School.
13. Actively engage in scholarship that underpins your specialist area and which contributes to the University and School objectives ensuring up-to-date, leading edge teaching.
14. Participate fully in the life of the School and carry out any other reasonable duties as requested by the Head of School or her/his nominee.
15. To undertake the duties of the post in ways that ensure and enhance the health, safety and wellbeing of students and staff and to promote inclusion and diversity for all sections of the community.
16. To undertake the duties of the post in ways that ensure and enhance the health, safety and wellbeing of students and staff and to promote inclusion and diversity for all sections of the community.
17. To work within and help to enhance the University's commitment to environmentally sustainable ways of working.

*The above does not represent an exhaustive list of duties associated with this role.

Selection methods:

Shortlisted candidates will be invited to a formal panel interview, and asked to deliver a teaching session to the following brief:

Please deliver a 20-minute excerpt from a 90-minute, classroom-based Level 5 teaching session suitable for Cricket Coaching students, with the aim of developing their understanding of games-centered pedagogies to enhance player decision-making This will be followed by 5 minutes of questions.

You will have no more than 6 staff/students and there will classroom teaching facilities (PC and projector) available for you to use.