

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Principal Lecturer & Course Leader / Course Leader & Principal Lecturer (Teaching) in Diagnostic Radiography	Band AC4 (Principal Lecturer): £56,021 to £64,914 per annum Opportunity to progress to £68,857 subject to performance and the university reward scheme
School: School of Health & Wellbeing
Department: Department of Allied Health
Reporting directly to: Head of Department
Supervisory responsibility for: Diagnostic Radiography academic team
Other Contacts Internal: Head of School; Academic and Professional Service colleagues within the School; Academic colleagues in the College of Health, Life and Environmental Sciences External: Placement providers; NHS Trusts
Main Duties*: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To lead the BSc Diagnostic Radiography course, overseeing day-to-day operations, completing assigned tasks, and ensuring the smooth running of the program. 2. To design, develop, and deliver innovative learning materials and assessments for undergraduate and postgraduate levels, including blended learning approaches. This includes supervising student dissertations and managing assessment processes within the Diagnostic Radiography course. 3. To provide high-quality teaching for diagnostic radiographers and allied health students at all levels, through face-to-face, online, and practical methods, ensuring adherence to quality assurance procedures. 4. To contribute to leadership by managing the diagnostic radiography academic team and other allied health colleagues. 5. To act as a Personal Academic Tutor. 6. To take an active role in cross-School activities, including teaching, contributing to the inter-professional philosophy of the School. 7. To carry out academic administrative work and participate in relevant committees within the School, College and University. 8. To support and contribute to practice education as requested by the Practice Education Lead / Team and/or nominee. 9. To engage in and maintain personal and professional development, including research, scholarship, CPD, and professional practice. Participate in training activities and support staff development to meet job demands.

10. To participate in recruitment and selection activities.
11. To undertake any other reasonable duties requested by the Head of Department or nominee.
12. Take steps to ensure and enhance personal health, safety, and well-being and that of other staff and students.
13. Carry out these duties in a manner that promotes equality of opportunity and supports diversity and inclusion and takes into account the University's commitment to environmentally sustainable ways of working.

*The above does not represent an exhaustive list of duties associated with this role.

Selection methods:

Short-listed candidates invited to interview will be asked to deliver a 15-minute teaching session, followed by 5-minute questions.

The topic will consider teaching 'The future of Diagnostic Radiography: Integrating Artificial Intelligence to Improve Patient Outcomes', aimed at Level 6 (third-year) students.

The Chair of this group will provide feedback on the presentation to the subsequent interview panel.