

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Research Fellow in Mental Health	Band 7: £37,100 to £41,732 per annum Opportunity to progress to £45,585 subject to performance and the university reward scheme
School: School of Health & Wellbeing
Department: College of Health & Science
Reporting directly to: Professor of Mental Health Inequality
Other Contacts Internal: Head of School; College Director of Research & Knowledge Exchange, Academic colleagues in the College of Health and Science External: Project partners; Herefordshire & Worcestershire Integrated Care Board; NHS Trusts
Main Duties*: Research, Knowledge Exchange and Impact <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To undertake literature reviews (systematic reviews, rapid reviews). 2. To lead on the preparation, production and submission of documents for ethical approval (NHS and university application where appropriate). 3. To undertake data collection, data entry, coding, analysis and interpretation of data, both quantitative and qualitative where required. 4. To present findings at conferences. 5. To make significant contributions to the writing of journal articles and other publications as required. Leadership and Management <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6. To work effectively with members of the research programme and with key external stakeholders. 7. To make significant contributions to decision-making to ensure projects run to timetable and abide by the relevant study protocol. 8. To produce reports and disseminate findings using a range of innovative methods as requested by the project lead. 9. To attend and contribute to project meetings as required. 10. To supervise other research team member/s as required.

Learning and Teaching

11. To contribute to the supervision of doctoral and Masters students.
12. To contribute to accredited and non-accredited programmes aligned with the School's research to support the professional development of health and care professionals.
13. To make a significant contribution to the University's Researcher Development Programme.
14. Maintain personal and professional development to meet the changing demands of the job; participate in appropriate training activities and encourage and support staff in their development and training.
15. Take steps to ensure and enhance personal health, safety, and well-being and that of other staff and students.
16. Carry out these duties in a manner that promotes equality of opportunity and supports diversity and inclusion and takes into account the University's commitment to environmentally sustainable ways of working.

*The above does not represent an exhaustive list of duties associated with this role.